

The Funniest Mother's Day Commercial Contest

$100.00 Cash Prize!

Mom's Radio Network announces a fun competition designed to find and honor the funniest Mother's Day Commercial.

Anyone with audio recording know how and an acute funny bone is invited to create a unique commercial for submission!

Here are the simple rules:

1. The commercial must be between 30 and 60 seconds long.
2. Do not use music unless you have appropriate permissions.
3. Your submission must be an original creation.
4. Keep the language and content child friendly.
5. DO include a mention of your Website & URL but DO NOT make it a blatant advertisement because that's not funny!

All submissions will be published on the Mom's Radio Network site and we will take votes to determine our winner.

The winner's commercial will be played on Work at Home Moms Talk Radio and Baby Talk Radio the week after Mother's Day and will also make appearances on several other Mom's Radio Network programs!

Submit your commercial as an mp3 file attachment to:
contest@momsradionetwork.com by Sunday, May 6, 2007.

Voting will commence Monday May 7th through Saturday, May 12th.

Our Winner will be notified on Mother's Day, Sunday, May 13th
